Purpose of the Alabama Cattlemen's Association

"The purposes of this non-profit corporation are to serve as the women's auxiliary of the Alabama Cattlemen's Association and to conduct, and to participate in, activities which will assist the Alabama Cattlemen's Association in its endeavors to promote, develop, expand, and encourage the production of beef cattle in Alabama, as well as its efforts for the advancement and betterment of the interest and welfare of Alabama cattlemen and the cattle industry; to conduct and be responsible for the ladies' business and social activities at its annual meeting and on other occasions; and to do and perform any and all acts necessary and suitable, and proper for the accomplishment of the purposes for which it is organized."

Alabama Cattlemen's Association Creed

I believe that to have a friend I must be one.

That all people are created equal and that everyone has within herself the power to make this a better world.

That God put the firewood there, but that everyone must gather and light it themselves.

In being prepared physically, mentally, morally to fight when necessary for that which is right.

That Cattlemen should make the most of the resources we have.

That "this government, of the people, by the people, and for the people" shall live always.

That Cattlemen should live by the rule of what is best for the greatest number.

That all things change, but the truth, and the truth alone lives on forever.

I believe in my Creator, my country, and my fellow man.

Purpose of the ACWA Hall of Honor & Cowbelle Award

The purpose of the Alabama Cattlemen's Hall of Honor is to bestow honor and recognition upon living Cattlemen who have made significant contributions in support of the Alabama Cattlemen's Association and the promotion of the beef industry. The purpose of the Cowbelle Award is to honor posthumously those Cattlemen, who during their lifetime, were an inspiration, mentor, and promoter of the Alabama Cattlemen's Association and the beef industry. The Cowbelle Award is a way to pay tribute to deceased Cattlemen who gave their time, dedication and resources in service to Beef Promotion, Youth and the ACWA, but were not honored during their lifetime through induction into the Hall of Honor.

Alabama Cattlewomen's Association

*Evelyn Brown
Cullman County
2011 ACWA President*

Evelyn has been a passionate, supporting member of the ACWA for more than 20 years. She is an active member of the Cullman County association and has served on its board for over six years. Evelyn has served as secretary, district director, second vice president, first vice president, president-elect and as 2011 president of the state association. She serves her county and state through participating in beef promotions and membership recruitment. She takes an active part in her county's steak sandwich sales, county and district steer shows, and beef promotions at fair booths and concession stands. She helps plan, decorate and prepare meals for the Cullman County annual meeting and field day. She was an integral part in establishing Alabama's first Collegiate Cattlemen and Cattlewomen's association at Auburn University, where she continues to serve as a mentor for the organization. Evelyn has also been an active member of the American National Cattlewomen for over eight years. She served as secretary in 2010 and has served on the ANCW National Beef Cook-off committee. She will serve as chair of the same committee for the next term (2012-2014). In January, she was elected to serve on the ANCW Board of Directors. She is always delighted to encourage young people to become more involved with beef promotion and education.

2012 Hall of Honor Inductees

*Karen Harrison
Baldwin County
2010 ACWA President*

Karen has been an active member of the ACWA since 1999. She served as president and secretary-treasurer for the Baldwin County Cattlewomen. At the state level, Karen served as historian, district director, second vice president, first vice president, president-elect and served as president in 2010. She also served as ANCW historian in 2010. The same year, she was recognized as the Baldwin County Mother of the Year. During her year as president, Karen helped with fundraisers for the ACWA through selling t-shirts, jewelry and accessories and through the ACWA District Basket Raffle at the state convention. Over the years, Karen has worked at a local Baldwin County stockyard and with her county's junior cattlemen and cattlewomen. Throughout her involvement in various state and county activities, she has had a positive role in promoting the beef industry and encouraging youth participation. She promotes beef through in-store demonstrations and at county fairs, has helped with junior and senior beef cook-offs at the county and state levels. Karen helps her husband Marlon run a tack and feed store, along with their liquid feed business. She is dedicated to promoting the cattle industry.
